MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1770.

LEGHORN, December 14.

SOME of the Ruſſian Ships of War have put in at Sardinia, in order to wait there for the Remainder of their Fleet. The Dutch Vice-Admiral Roeſmer is collecting his Squadron, which is to conſiſt of Twelve Veſſels of War, with which, he is to ſcour the Mediterranean, but we know not for what ſon. The Ships and Galliots of the Grand Duke Tuſcany have likewiſe received Orders to hold ſelves ready to ſail, under the Command of Capt. h.

ARSAW, Dec. 16. The Count de Romanzow, eral in Chief of the Ruſſian Forces, has fixed his d-Quarters in the Ukraine, that he may be at d to oppoſe any Incurſions which the Tartars may e upon the Frontiers.

OPENHAGEN, Dec. 23. Two Frigates of War, are dy to ſail with the Eaſt-Indiamen bound to Bengal China, and after eſcorting them to a certain Lati- they are to go and cruiſe againſt the Algerines. Men of War, One of 70 Guns, One of 60, and of 50 Guns, accompanied by Bomb Veſſels, are in thoſe Frigates in the Spring, in order to protect Daniſh Ships in the Mediterranean, and demand ſfaction of the Dey of Algiers, for daring to break Peace with the Daniſh Nation.

ARIS, Jan. 8. They write from Rochelle, that in ſequence of an Order of Council that Port is going e properly repaired, the Security of its Harbour the Advantages of its Situation being ſuch as will er it very Beneficial to the Navigation of this gdom.

LONDON,

c. 12. It is now confidently ſaid that Mr. M. a gyman in Kent, is the Author of the celebrated ers ſigned Junius; that Two Noblemen of great nction, furniſh him with Materials: And that great Dukes have given a Bond of 30,000l. each, der to indemnify the Publiſher. Others ſay Mr. the Author.'

e hear that a ſmall Squadron of Men of War, ſome Land Forces, are ſoon to be ſent on an Ex- ion to the Coaſt of Africa.

is expected the natural Effects of the Family Com- of the Houſe of Bourbon will ſoon appear ghout all Europe.

e are well aſſured Proſecutions will be commenced ſt the Printer of the Public Advertiſer, for the laſt Letters ſigned Junius, as well by the Duke of —, as Col. B———. It is alſo aſſured, the er of that Paper is indemnified by the Earl of —e, whoſe Chaplain it is ſaid is the Author of Papers.

c. 23. People are much divided in their Opinions, regard to the laſt Junius. Some aſcribe it to Mr. es; many to Mr. B——ke; others to Lord G. S. t Lord L——n, Mr. M——n, (Secretary to Lord —e) and Mr. G———lle are each, by different le, ſaid to be the Author of it. From theſe vari- Opinions, we may venture to conclude, that if M——y had no Hand in it, they have it among .

e Empreſs of Ruſſia's Army, in it's different Di- s, conſiſts at this Time of 651,000 Men.

wo Ladies of the firſt Claſs of Nobility have lately publicly detected by their Huſbands in clandeſtine- ercing the Horn Trade. And it was Yeſterday ered at the Court End of the Town that theſe Smugglers, the youngeſt of which Offenders is y-five Years of Age, will ſhortly be brought be- the Houſe of Lords.

n. 10. The King of Sardinia has, we are aſſured, ſome very extraordinary Demands on the Citi- of Geneva, who, we hear, have paid no Atten- to his Claims, but are negociating a Treaty with ct.

Col. L. vacates his Seat, we hear that the Electors —y, in Cornhill, aſſiſted by the Tinners, are ined to return him, by Rejection, the Compli- e paid them in April laſt.

Correſpondent obſerves, that the D. of G. by his ct, ſeems to have loſt, if ever he had it, the Art aking right, or to have determined to act uni- wrong; to gain a Friend to his S—— and him- exerts his Intereſt in favour of the Son of a ; in this he betrays his natural Inclinations, and the Public his internal Attachment.—The general Conduct of Mankind proves Horace's Adage of Quo ſemel eſt imbuta recens ſervabit odorem teſta diu, to be founded on Truth, and it is equally applicable to the D. of G. and the E. of E.

Jan. 11. A Gentleman of Rank laid a conſiderable Wager the other Night at White's, that if a certain Member ſhould be diſlocated, no other County or Borough would re-ſeat him.

A Letter from Breſt Adviſes, that Twenty-nine Sea Lieutenants, who had been diſcharged from the King's Service ſince the Peace, had obtained Permiſſion of the Court to ſerve on board the Ships of War belonging to the grand Signior.

Letters from Anamaboe mention, that the French and Dutch Interlopers are very numerous on the Coaſt; and, by Means of well-timed Preſents to the African Chiefs, are in a fair Way to ruin the Engliſh Trade if not timely prevented.

Jan. 12. Proteſts of a ſingular Nature are ſpeedily expected from the North Side of the Tweed.

According to Letters from Madrid, the Court had given Orders for ſeveral Regiments of Infantry to be embarked with all Expedition for La Vera Cruz and the Havanna.

A great Perſonage is ſaid to have hitherto reſiſted the united Solicitations of a certain Board, with Regard to the diſcharging a diſtinguiſhed Officer.

A great Man in a high Department expreſſed himſelf on Tueſday laſt, "my Opinion is my own; it ſhall live with me, die with me, and be buried in my Coffin." Another great Perſon immediately replied, "the ſooner the latter Epocha happened, ſo much more happy the good People of this Kingdom:" Which ſudden Replication ſtruck the other Dumb during the whole Debate that Evening.

A great Man took Occaſion to ſay, on Tueſday laſt, "that the Company, then preſent, derived every Bleſſing of the Conſtitution from the Iron L——ds of old and not (pointing to thoſe ſeated in a particular Part) to the Silken ones of the preſent Age."

Jan. 24. It is certain that Lord Camden, before he attended the Houſe of Lords on Monday, had a long Conference with a great Perſonage.

It is whiſpered that a Motion will be made for an Addreſs to remove the M———r.

The following Account is ſaid to be Authentic: Lord Morden the late Lord Chancellor, (ſince Lord Camden's removal was determined on) received hourly Invitations from the Miniſtry to accept the Seals; which he not only declined, but aſſured ſeveral Members in the Oppoſition (particularly Lord Rockingham) that he never would or could, on Terms which he could not but look on as derogatory to his particular Sentiments, as well as the Intereſt of his Country. On Wedneſday Morning laſt he received a particular Meſſage, immediately from his M———y, deſiring his Attendance at the Queen's Palace, and there was ſo warmly ſolicited by him in Perſon, that unable to withſtand ſuch repeated Requiſitions, he aſſented. On his Way home he called at Lord Rockingham's, when meeting ſeveral Members in the Oppoſition, he told them what had happened, at which they one and all upbraided him, in ſuch poignant Terms, with his Infidelity, that he was inſtantly taken ill; from whence he was immediately removed to his own Houſe, where he continued ſo 'til Saturday Evening, when he died. The Duke of Grafton being informed of this Circumſtance, about Eight o'Clock the ſame Evening, he with Lord Weymouth, and ſeveral others at the Head of Adminiſtration, immediately waited on his M———; when it was there reſolved, that the Seals ſhould not be perſonally diſpoſed of 'til after the enſuing Term.

Mr. De Grey, we hear, has declined accepting the Seals, on Account of his ill State of Health.

The laſt Lord Chancellor was the only one that died in that high Office (except Lord Talbot) theſe 150 Years.

On Monday and Yeſterday Lord Camden was at the Houſe of Peers.

We hear it was reſolved Yeſterday by the Supporters of the Bill of Rights to take into Conſideration the State of Mr. Wilkes's Affairs at their next Meeting, that there may be no Impediment to his Enlargement from Priſon at the Expiration of his Sentence.

Jan. 25. Yeſterday died at his Houſe in Downing-Street, Weſtminſter, the Right Hon. Sir John Cuſt, Bart. Speaker of the Hon. Houſe of Commons, in the late Parliament, and re-elected in the preſent to that Office, which he diſcharged with great Ability and Integrity, 'til he was lately obliged to reſign it on account of his ill State of Health.

On Saturday next, we hear, comes to be argued at the Cockpit, Whitehall, the Complaints of a certain Town in America againſt a particular Perſon.

It is ſaid there are Eighteen Articles of Complaint.

Mr. Serjeant Glynn, and Mr. Lewis are the Council retained by the above Town.

The Minority now, with thoſe who are gone over within a few Days paſt, with a noble Military Commander, are ſaid to amount to 256.

We are informed, that when the S——r G———l waited upon the Premier to reſign, he had this Compliment paid him, "That he would very willingly accept of his Reſignation, and that of as many of his Friends as choſe it." Nevertheleſs Mr. D———g ſtill officiates as S—r G——l, as that Office cannot be vacated without a Writ of Superſedeas.

We hear that Dr. Muſgrave arrived in Town on Tueſday, and the ſame Evening was admitted to a Conference of ſeveral great Perſonages.

Letters from Vienna aſſure, that by the laſt Advices from Conſtantinople, Kerim Kan, the Regent of Perſia, was preparing to invade ſome of the Turkiſh Provinces: That the Montenegrins had gained ſeveral Advantages in Dalmatia; and that the Georgians ſhowed Tokens of being determined to throw off the Ottoman Yoke.

Letters from Venice mention, that the Grand Signior had cauſed it to be notified to the Senate, that he will account the giving a Reception to Ruſſian Men of War in any of the Ports of the Republic, as a Declaration of War againſt himſelf.

This Morning Sir Edward Hawke had a long Conference with his Grace the Duke of Grafton, and afterwards preſided at a Board of Admiralty.

A Correſpondent ſays, "A great Officer of State is much chagrined to ſee Lord C———n bear the Loſs of his important and lucrative Poſt with Eaſe and Indifference, and appear at Court ſo frequently, paying his Reſpects to a great Perſonage with a pleaſing unimbarraſſed Countenance; the ſure Indication of goodneſs of Heart, and rectitude of Action."

It is reported that the above Nobleman has declared to his Friends, that he ſhall not refuſe to reſume his Office, if it ſhould be thought that his Services can any Way contribute to the real Honour and Advantage of his Country.

We are told that ſeveral principal Practitioners in the Court of Chancery, have actually put on mourning to teſtify their Sorrow for the Loſs of Lord Camden, who they ſay, by his Diſmiſſion from that Court, is in Effect dead to them.

We are told that the patriotic Party of both Aſſemblies have Conſultations almoſt every Morning before they Repair to their reſpective Seats.

Jan. 27. Letters from Liſbon inform, that a Reconciliation between that Court and the Holy See, has been publiſhed there in Form, and a Trade again opened with the Subjects of the Eccleſiaſtical State, to the great Joy of both Nations.

Letters from Paris mention, that the new Comptroller General of the Finances, whom the French look upon as another Sully, told the King a few Days ago, "That it was impoſſible to lay any new Burthens upon his People, already ſinking under their Load; and that he muſt ſeek Reſources in Oeconomy, and in the Coffers of the Financiers, which contained all the Money of the Kingdom."

Yeſterday the Earl of Waldegrave kiſſed her Majeſty's Hand, on being appointed Maſter of the Horſe to her Majeſty.

A Council is ſummoned to meet on Tueſday next, at the Cockpit, Whitehall.

We hear that Yeſterday Sir George Yonge, and Sir Piercey Brett, reſigned their Places as Lords of Admiralty.

It is ſaid that the Time granted to produce proper Evidence in Support of certain Complaints, was ſo ſhort, that it has not been accompliſhed; and that, therefore, the Council will move on Saturday for further Time.

It is ſaid, that Mr. Cuſhing and Mr. Otis are the principal Objects of a certain private Man's Reſentment, and of miniſterial Vengeance.

It is ſaid the Right Honourable George Onſlow has entered his Declaration againſt the Reverend Mr. Horne, and laid his Damages at 10,000l. The Cauſe is expected to come on next Term.

They write from Genoa, that a French Man of War, having come to anchor there, inſiſted on being ſaluted by an Engliſh Veſſel that was then in the Harbour, which occaſioned a briſk Altercation between them, and would probably have been attended with ſerious Conſequences, had not the Conſuls of the Two Nations interfered, and found Means to put an End to the Diſpute.

Jan. 27. We hear that the Bets in a political Society, on a popular Queſtion, were 180 to 224.

The Sum of 1,175,224l. will, it is alſo ſaid, be wanted for the Land Service of the preſent Year.

We hear that 17,666 Men will be wanted for the Land Service for the preſent Year, including Invalids, and that 624,992l. will be wanted for their Pay.

On Thurday Sevennight a Conference was held, at a Houſe in Groſvenor Square, at which, among other Things, it was ſettled, that, ſhould the preſent Oppoſition ſucceed, L—d C——m, L—d T——ple, and the M——s of R———m, ſhould be created Dukes, and hold each a Cabinet Office; that G. G——lle, under the Controul of the Three Dukes, ſhould appear as oſtenſible Miniſter, at the Head of the Treaſury; and to render the preſent Adminiſtration permanent, that all thoſe who call themſelves the K—g's Friends in both Houſes ſtould be turned, and forever kept out of Office. The Reſult of this Conſpiracy againſt the Authority of the S——n was ſoon after communicated to a g—t P——e; and he declared, with dignified Reſentment, that, as he was not conſulted in the Arrangement, he was determined to prevent its taking Place; and that the Inſolence of their Deliberations in private had fixed him, in the Reſolution of NEVER employing them in the public Councils of the Nation.

Another Account ſays, that a great Perſonage, on being told of the League, or rather Conſpiracy, lately formed at the Houſe of a certain Marquis, expreſſed his Indignation in the following noble Manner: "And have they reſolved to invade my Rights, and abuſe thoſe of my People? I am unhappy at their Folly; it has forever excluded them from my Favour, as it ſhall from the Service of a Country, which they would ſacrifice to their Ambition. While I have MY PEOPLE free, I will be ſo MYSELF."

It is now confidently aſſerted, that Lord Mansfield will be appointed Lord Chancellor of Great-Britain.

It is ſaid that Colonel Luttrell will ſhortly vacate his Seat for Middleſex.

We hear that Sir George Oſborne, Bart. and William Jolliffe, Eſq; are to be appointed Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, in the room of Sir George Yonge and Sir Piercey Brett, who have reſigned.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from New-York, brought by the Harriot Packet Boat, Captain Oak.

They write from Barcelona, that a Ruſſian Man of War had juſt put into that Port, the Commander of which was only allowed Forty-eight Hours to finiſh his Buſineſs, and depart the Harbour.

It is reported that the Eſtabliſhment of a Fourth Secretary of State for the ſole Management of Eaſt-India Affairs is no Chimera, but a Scheme in Agitation.

It is ſaid that Lord Camden has frequent Conferences with a great Perſonage, and it is generally thought at the St. James's End of the Town, his Lordſhip will again be poſſeſſed of the Seals.

The Petition from the Clerks and moſt eminent Solicitors in the Court of Chancery to a great Perſonage, praying the Reſtoration of an honeſt Man to an high and important Office, is already ſigned by a great Number of Gentlemen; and left at a Coffee-Houſe, in Chancery-Lane, for more to ſign.

It is confidently aſſerted, that upwards of Twenty lucrative Sinecures will ſoon be created, as the Majority does not at preſent ſeem quite ſtrong enough.

The Minority, it is ſaid, continues to gain Ground daily.

It is ſaid that a certain Letter will be burnt by the Hands of the common Hangman.

Extract of a Letter from Bermingham, Jan. 23

"Since we wrote you laſt, we are adviſed, both from London and Briſtol, that the American Ships will not take any Goods on board until the Revenue-Acts are abſolutely repealed. We muſt therefore beg you will poſtpone ſending our Orders 'til that is fully effected, which we hope may be very ſoon.

"We mean only Orders No. 147 and 87 be poſtponed, the others you have are not for America, and we wiſh them diſpatched as ſpeedily as poſſible."

Jan. 29. A Morning Paper mentions, that the Earl of Northington has lately been ſent for Three Times to Court, but has not attended, his Lordſhip propoſing for the future to lead a retired Life in the Country.

It is whiſpered that a great Perſon has ſignified a Deſire of Lord Camden's re-aſſuming the Office of Lord Chancellor.

It is ſaid, that his Grace the Duke of Rutland is coming to Town, to attend his Duty in Parliament; and will ſupport the patriotic Meaſure of the Earl of Chatham.

The Earl of Chatham, who has been indiſpoſed, is much better.

The Deciſion in a certain Place on Friday Morning, may be conſidered as a full and complete Anſwer to all the Petitions lately preſented.

On Friday no leſs than 11 Noblemen and Gentlemen, Members of both Houſes, joined the Minority.

A popular Commander has been much preſſed to reſume his Employment, but replied, with a Spirit becoming a Soldier and a Patriot, "That he cannot anſwer to his Conſcience remaining in Office, while ſuch a Set of Men as the preſent are in Power."

Jan. 30. Yeſterday his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers, attended by his Grace the Duke of Ancaſter and Lord Bruce, and gave the Royal Aſſent to the following Bills, viz.

The Bill to continue an Act for prohibiting the Exportation of Grain, Meal, Malt, Bread, Flour, Biſcuit, and Starch, and alſo for extracting Spirits or low Wines from Grain, &c. for a farther limitted Time.

The Bill to continue and amend an Act for allowing the free Importation of ſalted Proviſions from Ireland, and alſo from the American Colonies.

On Thurſday laſt there was the fulleſt Meeting in a great Society, that has been known this Winter, no leſs than 404 Members being aſſembled.

The principal Speakers in a late Debate were on the Side of the Oppoſition, Mr. D———ll, Mr. G. G—e, Mr. B—ke, Mr. W——n, and S——t G——n; on the other Side, Lord N——h, At r—y G——l, Sir G——t E——t, and the Honourable C——s F——x.

Sir George Rodney is ſaid to be appointed one of the Lords of the Admiralty.

It is ſaid, that on the Diſmiſſion of a great Law Officer, he aſked to know a certain great Perſonage's Objection; to which the P—r replied, 'Tis I who have the Objection.

The Addreſs of all the Chancery Inns to have Lord Camden reſtored, is already ſigned by Two Thouſand Gentlemen of the Law.

They write from Portſmouth, that great Encouragement is given to Sailors, Orders having been ſent down to man the Men of War as ſoon as poſſible.

The preſent Fleet is ſaid to be intended for Corſica. The Land Forces are to be drawn from Gibraltar and Port Mahon.

Laſt Night Expreſſes were ſent to all the out Ports to ſtop the Sailing of ſuch Ships as are laden with Corn to foreign Ports.

It is reported that both Courts of France and Spain have given very evaſive Anſwers to the Categorical Demands of the Court of Peterſburgh, in Regard to their obſerving a Neutrality between the Turks and Ruſſians.

The Public, for a long Time paſt, have been abuſed with a Story of Money having been given by the French Court to purchaſe the late Peace. D. M. had laſt Night a full hearing at his own Deſire, and was allowed to tell his whole Story: When it appeared to the unanimous Senſe of all who heard, that the Information was entirely frivolous, and unworthy of all Credit, and ſuch as could not afford any reaſonable Ground for the Enquiry demanded.

It is confidently ſaid that Lord Mansfield has had the moſt preſſing Solicitations both from a great Perſonage and the M——y, to aſſume the Office of Lord Chancellor, but that his Lordſhip has hitherto declined the Offer.

This Morning the Earl of Hillſborough had a numerous Levee at his Lordſhip's Houſe in Berkeley Square, at which ſeveral of the American Merchants attended.

Yeſterday ſome additional Rendezvous Houſes were opened at Wapping, Rotherhithe, and Southwark, for entering Volunteers to ſerve on board the Royal Navy.

It is ſaid to be confirmed that Lord Piercy, Sir George Yonge, and Sir Piercey Brett, are of the Patriotic Party.

WESTMINSTER, January 23.

His Majeſty being come to the Houſe of Peers, and ſeated on the Throne in his Royal Robes with the uſual Solemnities, commanded Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentlemen Uſher of the Black-Rod, to let the Commons know, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure they attend him immediately. Who being come, Sir Fletcher Norton was preſented as their Speaker to his Majeſty, who was graciouſly pleaſed to approve their Choice.

Jan. 22. The Lord Mansfield, who had by virtue of a Commiſſion under the Great Seal, been appointed to ſupply the Place of Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper in the Houſe of Peers, took his Place this Day accordingly.

At the Court at the Queen's Houſe, the 21ſt Day of January, Preſent, the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty, having conſtituted Sir Sidney Stafford Smythe, Knight, one of the Barons of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, the Hon. Henry Bathurſt, Eſq; one of the Juſtices of his Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas, and Sir Richard Aſton, Knight, one of the Juſtices of his Majeſty's Court of King's-Bench, Lords Commiſſioners for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal, was this Day pleaſed in Council to deliver to them the Great Seal of Great-Britain; and the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners did thereupon take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and alſo the Oath as Lords Commiſſioners for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal.

ANNAPOLIS, APRIL 12.

Prince-George's County, April 7, 1770.

SEVERAL Ships from Great-Britain being daily expected to arrive in Patuxent River, with European Goods, the Inhabitants of Prince-George's County thought it neceſſary to meet, in order to appoint proper Committees to SUPPORT THE ASSOCIATION. Accordingly, this Day, at Upper-Marlborough, the following Perſons were appointed for PATUXENT DISTRICT, viz.

For Upper-Marlborough.

Edward Sprigg,
Joſeph Sprigg,
Oſborn Sprigg,

Trueman Skinner.

For Queen-Anne.

Mordecai Jacob,
William Wootton,
Richard Duckett, jun. (not appointed for Bladenſburg.)
Robert Tyler,
James Mulliken,
Edward Hall, Son of Henry.

For Magruder's Landing.

Alexander Magruder, ſen.
Levin Covington,
Thomas Gantt, jun.
George Gantt,
Thomas Trueman.

RESOLVED, That we will ſupport the Aſſociation of the 22d June 1769, and that the above Committees be directed to take Care that the ſame be carried into Effect with the utmoſt Strictneſs.

RESOLVED, That Notice of the above Appointment be given to the Gentlemen of Bladenſburg, Broad-Creek and Piſcataway, in Expectation of their purſuing the ſame Meaſures as to the Importation of Goods on Patowmack River.

RESOLVED, That an Account of this Meeting be printed in the Maryland Gazette, that Notice may thereby be given of our Intentions to the neighbouring Counties of this Province, and to the other Colonies.

(Signed by a Number of the Inhabitants.)

The Marlborough Committee choſe Edward Sprigg, Eſq; for THEIR Chairman.

The Letter from M. and B. (reſpecting Goods arrived in Patowmack) is forwarded to the Gentlemen of George-Town, in Frederick County, where the Goods are to be delivered.

All Letters and Intelligence directed to the Chairman, will be duely attended to.

(Copy from the Minutes.)

THE Manufacturer of TOBACCO and SNUFF at Bladenſburg, once more addreſſes the Public, but particularly the Gentlemen Merchants, Factors, &c. acquainting them, that he is deſirous to furniſh them with Snuff, in the Wholeſale Way, and to prevent Diſappointments, he requeſts them to ſend their Orders to him as ſoon as poſſible, for it is highly probable he may enter into ſuch Engagements, as will effectually hinder his ſupplying them with the Quantities they may want.

It may not be improper to acquaint thoſe Ladies and Gentlemen who live remote from the Manufactory and are deſirous of becoming Cuſtomers, that he makes plain Scotch, Rappee, Spaniſh, and high Toaſt Snuff, and many Sorts of thoſe different Kinds.

In theſe Times of Oppreſſion, when Patriotiſm is the Theme of every Lover of his Country, it is hoped that the Want of Bottles will be no Obſtacle to the Sale of his Snuff, which he purpoſes to pack up in Country made Pots, when his preſent Stock of Bottles is exhauſted.

He has the Pleaſure to acknowledge himſelf much obliged for the Favours received from his good old Cuſtomers, and is anxious to merit a Continuance of their Correſpondence with,

Their very humble Servant,
RICHARD THOMPSON
